

VISIT METRONOME PRAGUE 2023 - A UNIQUE MUSIC FESTIVAL IN THE HEART OF EUROPE!

Already the sixth edition of Metronome Prague, where a number of world stars will shine, takes place on 22-25 June 2023 and promises unforgettable music experiences. Thanks to its top-notch line-up, location in the centre of Prague and the fact that it is happening at the most beautiful time of the year, Metronome Prague is one of the most popular metropolitan festivals in Europe.

This year's programme features an impressive line-up of internationally renowned artists including JAMIROQUAI, M83, ZAZ, AURORA, MODERAT, TOVE LO, EDITORS, WHITE LIES, JANA KIRSCHNER and many more. Over 40 international and local music acts will perform on a total of 8 large stages during four days. In such a rich mix of musical genres, every visitor, regardless of age, will find what they like.

"With Metronome Prague we have set ourselves two main goals. To invite visitors to Prague for a unique music experience that they will enjoy in high comfort. And we have certainly fulfilled both of them. This year's event consists of over 80 international and domestic acts and the established venue in the city centre offers plenty of comfort and a whole range of other services. From a rich gastronomic offer to chillout zones and Wi-Fi to sanitary facilities. In addition, we can also arrange accommodation in Prague for our visitors, which we offer in a special package together with tickets on metronome.cz", one of the promoters D. Gaydečka told us.

Metronome Prague 2023 will take place at the vast Prague Exhibition Grounds in the very heart of the city, which is an amazing combination of greenery and an amusement park. The venue has the right festival atmosphere and can offer a wide range of services and amenities. The proximity to the city centre will be appreciated by both domestic and international visitors, who can also discover the beauty of Prague. They will also appreciate the wide range of accommodation in all price categories, from luxury hotels to hostels.

In addition to a quality music programme, Metronome Prague will also impress with its visitor comfort. There are rest and relaxation zones, high-capacity Wi-Fi, a wide range of food and beverages - lovers of Czech and international cuisine, vegetarians, vegans, beer drinkers, wine drinkers and coffee drinkers will all find something to enjoy - and of course modern sanitary facilities. For those who want to enjoy the event in absolute comfort, there is a VIP zone.

Metronome Prague is more than just a music festival; it is an opportunity to experience Prague, one of the most beautiful cities in the world. The seat of the Czech kings will enchant you with its mystical atmosphere, majestic temples and palaces as well as picturesque streets and mysterious corners where time has stood still. And also, delicious Czech cuisine and the best beer in the world!

Tickets for Metronome Prague 2023 can be obtained easily on the official website www.metronome.cz, where you can choose both the type of tickets and the method of payment. With a three-day ticket you can enjoy all the stars of Metronome Prague and all the beauty of the Czech capital.

With an amazing mix of music, culture and entertainment, Metronome Prague 2023 is made for those looking for not just one, but many experiences. Don't miss this unique opportunity to be part of this fantastic event!
